

Cardiovascular Disease

Heart Diseased

Cardiac complications occur when ceramide trihexoside builds up in heart cells. Hypertension and cardiomyopathy are commonly observed.

Renal Failure

Dead Kidney

Kidney complications are common in Fabry's. Proteinuria is often the first sign of kidney involvement. End stage renal failure typically occurs in third decade and is common cause of death due to the disease.