

Sorrow (Expressing)

Topic Defenition

CREATIVE AUDIO

Espresso Zorro is wearing this sad expression because his day went bad from the start. His morning espresso gave him horrible breath, and he sunk to a new low by trying to cover it up. Thrusting forward his thread needle, he held up lemon mint for something to freshen his breath. They soon shared the same grievous look though, as a plane tv came crashing towards them. By simply passing through, so did the tragic fate of these loogie bees come to pass. A doll full bailed out, grasping at their loogies. She wasn't concerned about dragging them down. She merely spent her final moments full of self-concern, blowing snot into the last dollar to her name.
