Graphics

The avatar character should be blue like on the movie. Make the Corvette a cool red color to contrast the blue and green money. Be creative with the Mercenary Martian Hairy and maybe put some glows around the ufo and the rays. With the Miserly Mice Curly, make sure their curly tails really stand out. Also note that they are Rapacious Ripping Paper out of the Venal Van Owls book so make that very apparent.

CREATIVE AUDIO

This is what happens when a bank heist goes wrong. After stealing this big green money bag, the criminals were driven mad by greed and turned against one another. The avatar made off with most of the riches in her speedy corvette. But while escaping through a nice little neighborhood, money started spilling from the bag, turning neighbor against neighbor. This Easter ant was stricken by an endless appetite for the loot, and aggressively filled its basket. It wouldn't share a single scrap with the mice-curly family, knowing full well that they needed it for a new burrow. When ripped pages for building a burrow were offered by this van owl, they eagerly accepted. Unfortunately, this van owl is one of the betrayed criminals. He's trying to make up for the loss by filling his belly. This Martian was the criminal mastermind. Because the Martian is so hairy, he planned this bank heist in order to afford expensive hair products for the rest of his life. And he'll do whatever it takes to get that money bag.
